

Aysgarth and Hackfall

Saturday May 13th 2017

Our day out will begin in Aysgarth village with a visit to the Rock Garden, then on to Sorrelsykes Park and the Aysgarth Rocket.

We will go to the Druids' Temple, Ilton, for a picnic lunch (bring your own picnic) and then on to Hackfall. The gardens at Hackfall are in a wooded valley of the River Ure - overgrown for many years they have been rescued over the last 15 years. We will see Mowbray Castle, Fisher's Hall, Kent's Seat, the grotto and the Banqueting House.

We will finish with a cream tea.

There will be quite a lot of walking over rough and muddy ground, with some steep climbs at Hackfall. I can promise a few (pleasant) surprises during the day.

For those of you wishing to make a weekend of it there will be a visit to the Forbidden Corner on the Sunday

Cost for Saturday only (to include a cream tea): members £15.00, guests £17.00, children under 16 £10.00
